Techniques Used To Silence Journalists

I find myself among Cold War era Kennedy assasination connected security types (private sector though) as Cold War Special Agents of the FBI in similar matters have in hostile treatment by corrupt officials. Sosbee and Ted Gunderson were high level FBI counter-inteligence. Sosbee and Romamain language I say is tied to Windsor genes rom that area and FBI connected closty the many deaths that seem related to JFK as I think I am.

To Review The Donegan family overlaps

The Donegan's and Kennedy's in Dorchester Massachusetts Irish Roman Catholic potato famine families. The Donegan as young adults. Glorian Donegan in childhood was in Dean Rusk underground railway area escaping the Nazis in North Carolina with Dean Rusk 1926. She moved to Souh Carolina and later married James Donegan. By WWII James Donegan was flying the P-51 Mustang of Inglewood, Los Angeles County Califorina of Paul Schrade and then the atomic bombing of Japan and Hirsohia with Col Prouty. Following that with E. Howard Hunt in the Korean War and Richard Bissle Jr, and others. Later in Los Angeles overlapping with Chauncy Holt and Marilyn Monroe.

I assert this is tied to Birther and CIA and USAID and tied to JFK at my birth, CIA at McMartin school, and USAID and later shots at JFK and Paul Schrade USAID CIA Allen Dulles connected.

I assert whistle-blowers have been killed and thugs brag about that as I am given death threats, arsons have been non prosecuted to cover-up several murders, human trafficking, child abuse, and other crimes including covert racketeering in "red" markets (organ, child trafficking, child porn and "wet" markets (thugs for hire as CIA or FBI assets for violence against journalists, etc.,

I am going to assert Andrew Cormier and many other media and government figures "knew too much" and that rather than politics are why these have been assassinated by covert programs.

Dear President Bush

On April 3, 2003, I found an intruder (biker type- wearing a head bandana, leather Jacket, and chains attached to his belt) in the basement of the apartment complex where I am presently staying in Los Angeles. After seeing me, he bolted through the front door of the building and disappeared. I filed a police report. [am making this incident a matter of record with a number of government agencies and the news media because this appears to be yet another surveillance of me.

Since retiring as the Senior Special Agent in Charge of the FBI Los Angeles Division in 1979, I have publicly exposed pedophilia, murder, child kidnapping, and other nefarious criminal activity on the part of individuals both in and out of government circles; much of which has been covered up or ignored by those responsible for investigating these allegations.

IN THE PAST, THERE HAVE BEEN ATTEMPTS TO FRAME ME FOR ALLEGED CRIMINAL ACTIVITY, INDIVIDUALS HAVE BEEN 'PLANTED' ON ME AND THERE HAVE BEEN ATTEMPTS ON MY LIFE. MORE RECENTLY, I HAVE BEEN THE TARGET OF A DISINFORMATION/SMEAR CAMPAIGN SPEARHEADED BY AN FBI INFORMANT. IN ADDITION, I HAVE BEEN THE VICTIM OF PERIODIC SURVEILLANCES, ILLEGAL ENTRIES INTO MY HOME AND VEHICLE, AND ILLEGAL TELEPHONE TAPS (I HAVE PROOF.)

I [Ted Gunderson elderly FBI retiree] am making the April 3, 2003 surveillance incident a matter of record as I have no intention of becoming another 'victim' such as Bill Colby (former CIA Director) or Dan Casolaro (journalist) Both men were murdered in spite of the "official" reports that state otherwise.

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF TEXAS COUNTY OF CAMERON

On this 27th day of February, 2007, appeared before me Geral W. Sosbee, an individual known personally to me to be the person who affixed his signature to this document below and who, being by me first duly sworn on his oath, deposed and said: "My name is Geral W. Sosbee; I am over the age of 18 years. I am fully competent in all manner to make this affidavit. The information contained in this affidavit is within my personal knowledge, and is true and correct. I am referred to below as Affiant.

I have documented by direct and incontrovertible evidence and personal testimony the criminal activities of dozens (or perhaps hundreds) of agents, operatives and handlers of the FBI and the CIA of the United States of America, including, but not limited to the following:

A. Obstruction of Justice, Suppression of Evidence, Perjury, Fabrication of Evidence, Criminal Conspiracy, Conspiracy to Violate and the Violation of Civil Rights, Attempted Extortion, Attempted Blackmail, False Arrest, False Imprisonment, Fraud Burglary, Robbery, Felonious Assault and Battery, Destruction of Personal Property, Petty Theft, Theft of and Tampering with U.S. Mail and a variety of other high crimes and misdemeanors as further described in paragraph "B" below.

B. Abuse of civil process, home and car invasions facilitated by physical and wireless electronic surveillance in home and car and further enhanced by the use of a tracking device implanted in the person of the human experimentee, the Affiant; the surveillance of Affiant is ineffect as this affidavit is written and has been in effect twenty four hours a day, seven days a week, three hundred and sixty-five days a year, without cessation and without interruption for well over nine years world wide; all such invasive surveillance is accompanied by various terrorist acts against the Affiant as further described in paragraph "C" below.

C. Repeated assault and battery on the person of the Affiant by street thugs and by the use of high technology authorized by the United States Government ...

Prior to my (Edward Paul Donegan) becoming homeless following retaliation against my complaints and accusations at 1001 North Water Street Corpus Christi I (or rather my office equipment) suffered a string of attacks conduct by shill" neighbors placed by the police (replacing the original neighbors) and acting on police orders with police protection of them. The attacks including water poured from above on the computer on my fourth floor balcony from the fifth floor destroyed a computer beyond any recoverability. Following that I moved as depicted here to just inside the window of that same balcony but again on this fourth floor location a water drop came through the ceiling so intense it left an inch of water standing but I was able to protect my PC using plastic on top and random positions. Finally I moved into an all cement broom closet with a padlock I attached offering a key and the location of a hidden key on the top of the door frame. At the time of the theft I was watching some recreational horror films AND the Kings Speech about the WWII history of the Windsors and the probables they had been having during a key era tied to my book and the Special Relationship that has existed. FBI Direct Wray was on the cover of the book at that time accusing him of being a Deep State official.

Brian Glick In The War At Home on Burglaries

A common practice during the FBI's Counter- Intelligence Program (COINTELPRO) was the use of surreptitious entries or "black bag jobs." Bureau agents were given special training in burglary, key reproduction, etc. for use in entering homes and offices. In some cases, the key could be obtained from "loyal American" landlords or building owners.

Foul conduct, foul people, fould behavior including criminal activities such as fouling the wiring to the office, other criminal conduct, fouling the work environment with toxic foul actions of people like people making foul rather than correct statements about a person, making death threats, or other illegal, harassing, and out-of-bounds of the law actions.

Foul

Other forms: fouled; fouls; foulest; fouling; fouler

Foul is most commonly used as an adjective to describe a bad smell. As a verb, foul usually means “make dirty or messy.” You might foul your room to the point where it smells a bit foul.

In general, foul can be used as an adjective meaning "bad." Foul luck is bad luck; a foul day is a bad day. As a verb, foul can mean "break the rules." It’s used this way in sports, like when you commit a foul on the basketball court. The phrase "foul play" can be used in the context of sports or more generally, to indicate unfair or violent behavior.

Avoid confusing foul with fowl, which refers to birds, especially chickens. [Although bird-dogging can send foul behaving trackers after prey.]

In a natural encounter, cats generally have the advantage over snakes due to their speed, agility, and sharp claws and teeth.

Placing predators who will be given the advantage over the "snake-like" invaders is a way to repell the invadors. Unless of course the journalist is better connected than the Cat.

GundersonCover.png is the cover to my biography on Ted Gunderson and his conspiracy allegations spanning the CIA murder of JFK and RFK, Marilyn Monroe, the family of Jeffery McDonald, Sonny Bono, and other a of CIA child abuse and criminal conspiracies in McMartin preschool and Franklin Nebraska Boystown also by the CIA. On the cover is he himself, Jen Moore, and my father and mother all closely connected and telling the story of these events that included the Donegan family, James and Glorian, Ed and Tom. Ted.jpg is his documented accusations he and others knew too much about illegal conduct including Iran Contra and were being silenced by the FBI. This included the assassination of Gary Caradori and others.

The Franklin child prostitution ring allegations began in June 1988 in Omaha, Nebraska, when multiple prominent Nebraska political and business figures were accused of involvement in a child sex trafficking ring. The allegations attracted significant public and political interest until late 1990, when separate state and federal grand juries concluded that the allegations were unfounded and the ring was a "carefully crafted hoax." (and a CIA operation under cover-stories in a scandal that remains misunderstood.)

The Nebraska Legislature organized a state committee in December 1988 to look into both the credit union embezzlement and the child prostitution allegations named the Franklin Committee,[5] led by state senator Loran Schmit and Ernie Chambers acting as vice chair. Numerous conspiracy theories spread after the committee was announced, claiming that the alleged abuse was part of a widespread series of crimes including devil worship, cannibalism, drug trafficking, and CIA arms dealing.

In July 1990, private investigator Gary Caradori, hired by the Franklin Committee to investigate the allegations, died along with his 8-year-old son when his plane disintegrated in mid-air near Chicago. Foul play was suspected by Caradori's brother and state senator Loran Schmit, but was not proven by investigators.[7][8][9] No definitive cause for the crash has been established.

John DeCamp, Ted Gundesron, and William Colby were key investigators along with Gari Cardori into the CIA activities whose revelations came at the same time as similar allegations at the McMartin School of Manhattan Beach City Los Angeles County where I was born and went to preschool in a CiA hidden identies story others still are being assasinated over.

Conflict Engagement, Poisonings, and Conspiracies Against Rights using Informants

Thug attacks systems uses placed thugs for burglaries, violent assaults, and at times veiled activities like entering the premises as the plumbers, apartment maintenance, etc., and while doing so vandalizing or burglarizing or fabricating or placing evidence into the home sometimes called "gas-lighting" and "black bag jobs. Rather than just violate a right such as a police officer in the middle of the night removing an author from his office or home office the police conspire against the right fabricating evidence, starting fights, denying credit applications, etc.,

Assaults include veiled death threats and sexual assaults. Creating lewd double-enteders to create unwanted sexual fantasy talk is part of the methods of sexually harassing of unwanted fantasy activity. These are trouble makers and destabize situations breaching the peace and creating tensions.

Conflict Engagement the is the term of FBI informants starting Conflict. What the informant wants out of the conflict can vary. Sometimes the conflict is meant to lead to a fight and and an arrest or psychiatric commitment or eviction from the premises. The Conflict Engagements are hostile actions and what types are used? The FBI often slanders some as racists, terrorist, pedophiles, sex-offenders, etc., A Russian term is KOMPROMAT. Compromising Materials to ruing a person's life is called KOMPROMAT or building a Compromising Materials file to be used a against a person. Fabricating Comproming Appearances is called Street Theater. Role-plays act out that a ride on commute train going to work is an affair as a role playing actress approaches the male commuter on the train and kisses him if he is standing or sits on his lap if he is seated. I picture it taken by the KOMPROMAT Team and the picture of the role-play scene is used against the person.

A fight with the abuser of the victim could result in the victim being banned from the premises, arrested, or even being placed in a mental hospital or an injury to the victim could result from the conflict that arises, or extortiobn demands could be placed on the victim.

All of this has been done to me, is well-known FBI techniques, and Ted Gunderson, myself, my family, and Jen Moore are on on the cover of biography of Ted Gunderson. All are also in my book The Big Bamboozle and that book states JKF was assassinated by a conspiracy with participating elements in the USA and retalation is still occuring against those like myself, Ted Gunderon, Jen Moore, and myself who have information about that event in history.

Ted Gunderson was the right-hand man to RFK fighting the mafia that was run by Vice President Richard Nixon in the 1946 to 1960 years. As the Kennedy's gained power in the USA and world global dirty business operations subverted the USA and other nations. JFK and RFK attempted to shut down the CIA but it was too globally located to respond to the US Presidency and and held too much allegiance from British trained and supported Espionage in the USA operating as the US Government but through NGOs that again were difficult to control from inside the US Government. It would be comparable to NASA trying to control a long gone satellite past its available connections back to Earth.

A former senior official of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (Ted Gunderson) says "rogue" military intelligence and law enforcement units of the federal government oversee a nationwide network of community-based "gang stalking" (using community recruits and brain-washed dupes to conduct] harassment, intimidation and domestic terrorism) [and that the program is] directed at thousands of U.S. citizens who have been extra judicially targeted as "dissidents" or undesirables."

Ted Gunderson

"Based on my thirty years' experience and research, I have determined there are thousands of victims who have been targeted by an illegal U.S. government rogue criminal enterprise - military intelligence, probably, tied into CIA and FBI and so forth - that is active 24 hours a day throughout the United States," Gunderson stated in an October 2008 speech posted last fall on YouTube.

These GangStalks may have names like PizzaGate (a smear against me and slander that as I used normal public places for normal activities role-players act as though I or my belongings are victimizing a profile victim of underage girl and that profile is slander and does not match me.

These GangStalks often used criminals to comit domestic terrorism and are used against those who have run afoul of elite political figures. The GangStalk roleplayers are often part of for-profit criinla rackets, drug, rings, and gun running or other trafficking(as stalkers of me Ed DOnegan have been) and may be defrauding, committing terrorst threats or attacks upon the Target or break-ins to the home of the Target.

Blood is Thicker than Water. I am trying to uphold the USA system of values of freedom at the library, in politics suggesting laws and law-making and policies, and in being free of crime and criminal types. It used to be said in San Francisco before Kamala Harris was elected San Francisco County District Attorney that the police unions held all the political weight and clout. In 2020's Austin it is Pride, Prison Release such as Urban Alchemy, Black Lives Matter, various homeless agendas, often with faith based charities running the programs.

In my book The Great Treason is Exhibits: id1009 Tom Dunham of San Francisco spots Sock Puppet of Ed DOnegan promoting false image, negative image, of Ed Donegan. Ed Donegan is mentally retarded and wants to harm children. “The writer impersonating Ed Donegan appears to have done so to discourage protecting kids. Selectquote …”

And here I am Ed Donegan trying to be a writer of both fiction and factual biographies and art and political works.

DunhamSpottsPhoneEdDoneganPromotingNegativeLegend.jpg is an image that is a screen shot of some consecutive tweets from Tom Dunham who like I see what Jen Moore reported. A Dopple of Ed Donegan is a loser but that loser is always getting caught by police who actually operate the loser (in conjunction withe neighbors who are shills placed by the police.) This person is a victim of being blackmailed by police to avoid being arrested and does avoid being arrested by meeting pay-out demands by police. That same gang of COPS will ask neighbors and others "Why can we allow him to just buy his way out of this like he always can? Let us just keep him out of this area instead. Let us blacklist him." The neighbors who are placed by police demand Ed Donegan leave. But it isn't the real me. When I and Tom Dunam documented this using our tech skills Jen Moore had the proof she need but then was "silenced."

What is a mock-up? In manufacturing and design, a mock up, or mock-up, is a scale or full-size model of a design or device, used for teaching, demonstration, design evaluation, promotion, and other purposes. A mock-up may be a prototype if it provides at least part of the functionality of a system and enables testing of a design. Mock-ups are used by designers mainly to acquire feedback from users. Mock-ups address the idea captured in a popular engineering one-liner: "You can fix it now on the drafting board with an eraser or you can fix it later on the construction site with a sledge hammer". -Wikipedia. In other words it is a representation to be tried out. When it is a Charicature of a person the real person's image is damaged. This is why movies that have a possbile similarithy to those in real life a disclaimer might be added "The characters are purely fictional and not based on persons real or deceased."

The statement "The person in this movie are not based on any persons living or deceased" is a common legal disclaimer used in films to protect against libel or defamation lawsuits. It essentially asserts that the characters and events portrayed are fictional, not based on real people or events. This disclaimer is a standard precaution taken by studios to reduce the risk of legal action if someone believes they have been misrepresented. - Wikipedia. Yet Mockeries of me exist all over the place. This slander of me is harmful to children, a Nazi, a buttocks fetishist (not a casual observer of who might be in front of me in line, etc.,) and because of retardation needs sex-ed. During that sex-ed a demand is made to pay police officers for the damage the mockery of me did so the police can collected damages and collect protection fees and place themselves into a protection racket role. The abuse and bullying of me as that caricature is part of the fraud conducted by protection racket, some bullies may know or not know they are bullying over a slander. This is documented wiht conclusive proof in my books. Witnesses like Tom Dunham of San Francisco and forensic data collected prove all of this. Implicating me as a loser is part of the fraud and many techniques are used to implicate me by fraud into these baseless racketeering assertions. In addition the bullies hope if the slander being bullied does not destroy my life they fight with bullies might instead.

In law, a "terroristic threat" refers to a threat of violence, either to a person or property, with the intent to cause fear, terror, or disruption. using a terrorist threat to a journalist especially credible threats are what Ted Gunderson, Jen Moore, and myself Ed Donegan have experienced from State Sponsored actors sometimes open about their identities sometimes concealing them.

Political Abuse of Power by using Recruits to Attack a Target In Use of Power

Sham investigations frequently involve "Noble Savages" (those from lower echelons of society) duped or enticed into a abusive, slanderous, or vengefull activities that "target" an enemy of politicians or political officials. Often they are full of themselves on sham missions designed to appeal to the strongest emotions and instincts they have such as getting into the dressing room of The Serpent and The Dancer performers to help that person gaurd against dirty peopholes or perhaps to combat racism in a person who is from the alt-right, or to make a patriot calling out corruption seem a terrorist that is trying to smear a loyal figure on behalf of a foreign power.

An echelon refers to a level, rank, or position within an organization or hierarchy. It can also describe a military formation where units are arranged diagonally. The word comes from the French word for "rung of a ladder," reflecting the idea of steps in a hierarchy. The idle and perhaps eager to advance parts of society are often the recruits to Stalk a Target. Stalkers become abusive to the Target, cause problems, fail to help, sometimes attack or poison a Target, disrupt the target's activities, or engage in other noxius behavior. While always illegal Organized Stalks succeed in protect the corrupt political figures through the political figures denying involvment with the actions of the Stalker just as the Stalker will deny their actions.

Veiled abuse of the Target is by trying to imply something without actually making an accusation to the Target. If accusations are made it is through some money laundering layer not the Target who would refute what is implied. Called Zersetzug the damages are hard to prove not because the damages did occur but the Stalkers will deny involvement and politicians deny using Stalkers thus the damages to the Target are uncompensated and the corrupt politicians backing the recruits are never brought to justice UNLESS the press intervenes but often the Press are part of the slander operation and planted stories.

These intelligence community covert operation are similar to Committee to Reelect the President. The Nixon 2nd term election committee called sarcastically CREEP was full of CIA and other officials working with hit-men to break into a JFK connected DNC office and appears to have been illegal use of operatives suppress Nixon and CIA liabilities in the Kennedy assassination and UAL 553 later on. Many other illegal operations have been given name by the press or by their IC names.

My book writing has been the real target but role-players slandering me has been part of the smear campaign and follows with other harassment and violence against me by thug recruits.

Slander is one spine of the Porcupine

"Porcupines are large rodents with coats of sharp spines, or quills, that protect them against predation. - Wikipedia. Other attacks on journalists by Corruption Network include "car accidents," poisonings, terrorist threats to cease and decist journalism, break-ins, co-option to draw attention away from the author, and other illegal tactics. I call this the "Criminally Offending Police Syndicate" (COPS) but what is a Syndicate? Criminal syndicalism refers to "the advocacy of illegal and violent methods to achieve political, industrial, or social change". (or to prevent social changes like corrupt officials slandering critics via a Criminal Syndicate using methods of sabotage. Once facts are fabricated they can be used in money laundering if a RICO partner can be found who will act on the fabricated facts and pay false claims but hide the correct accounting of it. Blind Conservatorships is what Jen Moore asserted as a money-laundering operation and I assert this operation was in Jessica Aber's Easter Virginia area and involved Sequioa Plaza home of mental health services and Fairfax VA ARC of Nova.

When I was in Corpus Christi a life long supporter of Law Enforcement (and the laws even over friendships) I had met (after a vagrancy arrest) the some of a police officer. I suggested it was a shame he was in custody and use the law library to train himself in civil liberties and things like that rather than just be a part of prison culture.

What I have found since those days of Corpus Christi 2015 is that corrupt police operations called for and run by high-ranking officials (officials so high ranking they can get the programs designated as classified espionage operations and run them out of white house level staff) is that the police in corruption find relatives to help in "role-plays" that are often evn organized crime under Color of Law, Cartels in racketeering. These operations are called GangStalks and in my case (according to the ARC of Northern Virginia at that time) they were part of a "Family Grow Fund" Recently a few homeless people started calling me "brother" and have joined my family line it seems. He and a few others are asserting they are my family members now. Many here in Texas are supporting their police officer family members in breaking the law. Jen Moore wanted good cops to come forward but the illegal programs offer many perceived gains from the racket the racketeers pursue through the sham allegations being purported to be true about me. And yes, family did come from Atomic Testing, Above Ground atomic blasts, and DNA testing and Eugenics from covert family lines.

It is my belief that my genome I have from my family (where it comes from) is according to some in the WRONG family lines and even in (according to some) in the wrong racial group and these scamsters want my genome used in different family lines other than where it comes from in me.

As I myself Edward Paul Donegan document the events of the assassinations program (as Ted Gunderson did) I have experienced retaliation and police violence ad police backed violence following threats from police for me to stop my book writing. 022_46_3233ReverseSide.jpg has 4ScoreAgo and 6 Scoreago since 5Scorago I had to change after a while. I also had written down elsewhere Reagan1980 and a few others. 022_46_3233Front.jpg and 022_46_3233Zoom.jpg will be shown here.

In many cases I have in my books I have shown the front of my birther certificate containing my name, my parents name, my place of birth, my date of birth, etc., But also here (and for the first time in my books) show the backside of it with data I had written on it as I tried to pass it to the Russian Federation's US Embassy in Washington D.C.,. I had attempted to pass all my vital records of Driver license or copy, my notebook personal computer NOT sanitized in any way, the passwords to Windows and email etc., mostly on presidential history I often study thus comes to mind.

"Loyalist" Lynch Mobs

Access to the poliical arean to critize Government and its officials can (like all of life) by blocked by Lynch Mobs motivated by any of many possible motives. Others may be riled up to abuse a Target in frauds if the fraudsters can be enticed. Called "Precious Jewels" scam as noted in my books profiteers in predatory stalks may hope to (through abusive allegations and bullying of a Target) get a rare benefit that is derived as a result of the conflict.

The Speech and Debate Clause

Fearing petty or false allegations about a Congressperson might be a way to stop speech and debate in the Government members of Congress have some protection to get to their political arena free of harrassment. The public is also entitled to First Amendment activities but predatory treatment that may include physical attacks, threats of attack as terrorstitic threats, and abusive tense fights emerging from abusive hostile environments may all be used to prevent an author from access to the Political Arena. I used Socialist Workers Party '74 Campaing Committee case in a lawsuit I wrote citing the Supreme Court that access to office space was needed to function and thus the Socialist Party could conceal in finance reporting financial backers of the party. In my case attackers assert politics they know are wrong but may hold (black lives matter, Antifa, pro-immigrant) but whether true or not as to that being their real motives they may still not operate and abusive lynch mob and mob violence on any reaonsing.

Bivariance and Attack Defy Equal Protection

My books show details about Bivariance. Having two independent variables like alleged Sex Offender and writer about the Kennedy assasination. These are NOT linked variables in theory but in practice they do vary together when the slander is used as an attack on politicxal writing.

Common Denominator

I have observed the Common Denominator (the only predictor of violence from the State) is being a material threat to the Criminal Activities protecting the false narrative of the Kennedy Aassasinations. I for instance was ant-union most of my life. RFK and others were not. I was anti-immgratn while Veronica Hoffman was pro immigrant. Many other victims of "those who knew too much" are tied together only in that they "knew too much." That is the real reason mobs are used as illegal attacks which Officials deny using. Most observe the GangStalk goes after in illegal ways whistle-blowers.

So why did an unemployed homeless person think Russia should have any interest or need for my computer, more need for it than I had?

I already knew I was an adult male and since childhood was interested in adult women. The smear I was a pedophile liking narrow childish hips and bald pelvick regions as child porn interest is insane. If the Russians saw years of my web history from several browsers, my bookmarks those of a single adult male, my stored porn, ANY expert would know easily the allegations are faked about me by Shills. Shills called GangStalkers. did the same thing in Austin a few years later on Congress Ave at the Irish consulate.

What do shills to that cause disagreements? Disagreements leading to fights, etc., Shills pull up their pants showing "lips" shrieking at me, laugh at my genitals, laugh at children and then laugh at me in mocking shrieking laugh about my being a pedophile, have thrown feces at me, have covered my home in feces and left in on the porch, banged on walls for days straight after moving in as my neighbors, pulled weapons on me and attacked me violently on police orders.

I an not the only person experiencing these frauds and police violence and we all are documenting these police tactics to "Silence" those talking about the JFK assassination, the FBI, J.Edgar Hoover, and others including Chrstopher Wray, Donald Barr, William Barr, the Rockefeller Republicans, Watergate events and many others.

Excuses

Slander is used to deny housing. You can not deny a writer a house because they are writing about the FBI and CIA. If the landlord believes (or participates in planted evidence) you CAN deny housing. Ted Gunderson asserted "people were planted on him" all the time, the system of KOMPROMAT.

Bellweathers

The intensive retaliation and tone-deffness to tips on corruption is part of the context in which whistle-blower abuse also occurs in.

Brandishing, Cruising, and Hints

In the 1950's cars went back and forth on the main drag as passengers flirted passing by in something like a speed-dating interaction. Cruising in an abusive way is one of the methodologies of terrorist threats stalking designed to create by a pattern of "cruise bys" a sense in the Target a hostile operation has them surrounded. that is very often displaying weapons, making terrroistic threats, etc., In the case of Jen Moore AND Ted Gundeson the threats were to not speak bout JFK and the story of Mk-ultral, McMartic School, the CIA, etc., or death would occured.

I am going to (as is the norm for this anthological boook about TEd Gunderson) some of his lectures on his being poisoned, his web master being poisoned, his allegations of threat to his life, etc., and specifially how being connected to McMartin School history has emanated that out in both his direction and mine, if that school was not haunted by the CIA the historians of its existance are and have been.

Pouring over her videos for years around the clock and following up on JFK Dulles research including the JFK White House Photo Archive, CSPAN Booknotes, etc., I was able to write The Great Treason and Pillory those books covered the assassination of JFK and RFK respectively.

In the course of that I was led into Stalkers disrupting my work and that led me into the works of Ted Gunderson and pouring through is writings and research and finding yet more deathbed statements on the NWO Cabal forming now a four part Prouty Donegan Jen Moore Ted Gunderson combined view.

These reinforcing well placed sources including myself can now answer the important and outstanding JFK RFK Malcolm X Dr Martin Luther King and George Bush Rockefeller Nixon Ford role in sympathy to British Regime Change in the USA run by Wild Bill Donovan, the Dulles brothers, and others.

The works of James DiEugenio, Lisa Pease, Ralph Thomas and many others have been vital contributions to history and are in the threads of history they document variouslu part of this book.

Thanks to Jim Garrison for withstanding the State and Press hatred of him, Col Prouty for The Guns of Dallas, VP Nixon and Indonesia, and his other works. They seem to have emerged as Watergate was opening up, J. Edgar Hoover was dying, and other changes were underway perhaps opening the door.

Thanks to William Colby and his attempts to follow his conscious holding his religious faith while he lost faith (as Eisenhower did) in the CIA.

CHAPTER 25 IN MEMORIAM BILL COLBY

On April 27, 1996, my dear friend and mentor, former Central Intelligence Agency director, William Colby, disappeared, supposedly while boating on the eastern shore of Maryland. Ten days later, his body was fished out of the water, less than a mile from his weekend home. His death was pronounced an accident, probably caused by a heart attack, resulting in his falling into the river and drowning. Bill's sudden, and tragic death, prompts me to recount some features of our 25-year relationship, which bear directly on the events under discussion in this book. They will hopefully shed further light on his amazing life, and, perhaps, also on the circumstances surrounding his most untimely death. Bill Colby was one of the pivotal figures in unearthing the Franklin scandal. Without his persistent support and guidance, this book would have never been written.

More than once, I [John Decamp] was determined to put Franklin [and McrMartin the intro to Franklin written by Ted Gunderson] behind me, and write it off as a horrible experience that I could do nothing about. Often, I would ask myself, "Why should I have any responsibility to do something, when others in positions of power and government responsibility would do nothing,?" I know that Senator Loren Schmidt, the head of the Nebraska State Senate's Franklin investigating committee, felt the same way. I told Bill one time: "I have done all I can do, and have been burned badly-financially and credibility-wise-and, I am sure, politically. I think it's time to just let it drop."

It was at those times that Bill Colby kept encouraging me (and Senator Schmit), kept pushing us, almost forcing us to keep going, and to keep the press apprised. To quote his exact words, "This case is so much bigger than you think. It goes to the very highest levels; we have to keep pulling the strings." His idea was not to investigate further-which he repeatedly warned me could be very dangerous-as to shine the sharp glare of publicity onto what had already been discovered, to create the possibility of a real investigation. Bill always promised that he would help me as much as possible, behind the scenes and, if necessary, publicly. And, Bill always delivered.

When the Discovery Channel program, Conspiracy of Silence, was being prepared, the British investigative team insisted that they would not go forward on the program unless they had the on-camera personal interview, and verification of Bill Colby himself, that John DeCamp was reporting the truth with respect to Franklin, and with respect to this book, The Franklin Cover-Up. Colby went on camera, and thoroughly shocked the Yorkshire T.V. team in how strongly he came out, risking himself, to support me and my work on Franklin.

Bill also wrote a letter to Attorney General Janet Reno, in which he strongly recommended that the Justice Department investigate this case from the standpoint I outlined in my book, a copy of which he enclosed with his letter. He got a formal response back from a Justice Department official, promising that the Department would indeed look into the case. But then, Bill had always backed me up, right from the earliest days, beginning in Vietnam.

I vividly remember my first encounter with Colby-in the late 1960s. He discovered me by examining files of new, young officers being shipped to Vietnam, who might have "special that time, my ability to speak half a dozen languages and other talents."

[Also at that time] my training in Airborne, Jungle, and Ranger Schools. well as Vietnamese Language School, and the fact was a newly graduated attorney when was called into service. volunteered for a combat Infantry Captain, [apparently] entirely struck Colby's fancy-or at least his curiosity.

Colby was officially deputy ambassador to South Vietnam at that time, but was in reality the CIA station chief. He ordered that when I showed up in Vietnam, I was to be sent directly to him. I was.

Immediately, Bill immersed me in the planning of his own creation: a secret program which would later be one of the most controversial operations of the Vietnam War-the so-called Phoenix Program. Yes, it was controversial, brutal, and at times horribly handled. But by the admission of the North Vietnamese leadership after the war, it was also the single- most effective, and most feared program the Americans carried out during the Vietnam war.

It was Bill Colby, with his power and position as ambassador in Vietnam, in 1970, that made it possible for me to accomplish something never before done or after: to run for the position of state senator from abroad. I fought my entire election campaign from Vietnam, and won it-without ever setting foot on American soil. I ran and won, despite the fact that the top brass, from the Postmaster General, to the heads of the Army and Joint Chiefs of Staff, had tried to stop me, because I was saying, for the first time, that which Bill Colby and others thought needed to be told to the American people. That was: "Let us win or get out, but let's not keep conducting a charade, where we simply kill American boys to support a corrupt regime while the truth is hidden from the American people."

Back in the States, years later, as I marched through my political life and began practice as a private attorney, I maintained the contact with Bill, and often sought his advice. He dared-when it was truly unpopular to do so-to come back to Nebraska and testify for me on controversial issues, such as the Nuclear Test Ban Treaty in May 1986. Bill Colby had one characteristic rarely, if ever, found in politicians in this day and age. He told it like it is-the straight, unvarnished truth in simple, understandable terms.

Colby proved that, when, as head of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), he took the CIA before the U.S. Congress, to reveal the Agency's "family jewels" and start the process of correcting the sins of the CIA. For this, President Gerald Ford fired Colby and replaced him with a man named George Bush.

Colby told the truth again in December 1987, when he and I, and Henry Kissinger, and a couple of dozen prominent Americans, French, British, North Vietnamese, and former South Vietnamese leaders and journalists (Adm. James Stock- dale; Col. Harry Summers, Jr.; George Will; Al Santoli; Jean- Louis Arnaud; Ernesto Betancourt; Jacques Chaban-Delmas; Peter Collier; Sir James Goldsmith; Douglas Pike; Lam Ngoc Diep; Robert Komer; Olivier Todd; Nguyen Ngoc Quy; David Horowitz; Elliott Abrams; Tran Van Tong, to name a few) made our way to Paris, for three days, to sit around the very same table at which the Paris Peace Talks had been conducted 15 years earlier. There we all conducted our own International Conference on the Vietnam War.

Though not heavily reported in the U.S., in the rest of the world the Conference was heralded as the first real truth session on what happened in Vietnam, on both sides, and why we ended up where we did.

Shortly before his death, Colby gave me my final assignment. It was the week just before the Oklahoma bombing, and I spent a good amount of time with him in Washington, D.C. I brought him up to date on the Militia of Montana case which he had been following closely, describing in detail the militias' fears that the government was planning an imminent attack on them. As I sought guidance from him on how to best handle the militia situation, Bill smiled and said, "John, it sounds to me like you have the makings of another book. Believe me," he continued, "I know this Military Patriot movement is more significant than most Americans, and particularly the press and politicians, could ever realize. I fear that our government does not understand the nature of this movement, nor its potential significance to this country," Bill said.

"They [militias of common older responsible men of real life experience] are dangerous [to our leaders and government] precisely because of everything you just said. They are dangerous because these people are, in most cases mature citizens who have done everything you just described and who, tragically and in many cases very justifiably, have lost faith in the integrity and honesty of their own govern- ment. Yes, they are dangerous because, to use your words, John, they are true patriots who are disenchanted with the government and the system they have grown up loving, support- ing and giving their lives and talents for from the moment they were born. For many of them, it is as if they learned their mother was a prostitute and that they are bastards. It really is that traumatic."

I [John DeCamp]was shocked by Bill Colby's near-command to write a new book. True, as the attorney for some of the Montana Militia, I had been put in a unique position to see the inner workings of the militias, but from a position of objectivity, as a lawyer. I had first been drawn into the "militia scene" as a result of the wide circulation of this book. By the militias themselves, I was seen, not as an attorney, but as a combatant, against the worst forms of obscene corruption by our govern- ment, and by our nation's so-called elites. The fact that I was a practicing attorney and a former elected official was of secondary consequence.

"I think you are serious," I said to Colby with a gentle snicker, trying to break the tension of the moment. "You really are going to help me do this militia book, as you call it-and I know when you say you will help, that means I have access to a world of intelligence and knowledge that cannot be matched anywhere else on this planet earth. I will do it," I promised Bill. "Start on it right away in fact. 0K?"

"Should be a best seller," Bill Colby said. "Next time I see you here in DC. in the middle of May, you should have the first chapter of your new book, Militia, " Bill said. A few days later, on April 19, 1995, a bomb blew up the Federal Building in Oklahoma City. Within a year, my dear friend and longtime adviser was found dead in the Chesapeake Bay.

I have very serious doubts about the description of Bill Colby's death that emerged from the police search and the subsequent coroner's inquiry. I do not possess any "secret information" about Bill Colby's final hours; I base my doubts on 25 years of near continuous contact and collaboration with the man, a collaboration which deepened in his final years. I knew Bill Colby very well; I knew his personal habits, his idiosyncracies.

My point is simple. Bill Colby was the single most meticulously careful, programmed, organized individual I have ever encountered, especially when it came to matters of safety, security, and personal activities. Therefore, the description given in the media, surrounding his death, does not cohere with Bill Colby's personality, his character, his modus operandi, and my personal experiences with him over many years.

Bill Colby was not the kind of person who would take off on an evening boating expedition, leaving his computer still turned on at his desk, his half-finished dinner still sitting on the table, and most of the lights on in the cottage. That was not Bill. Furthermore, Bill had been the victim of a "robbery" in Washington, D.C., not too long before his death, in which he had been badly beaten, and easily could have died. [Common type of confrontation that results from a Gang Stalker starting a fight - epd]

This "robbery" and his actual death were both mysterious incidents, in a relatively short span of time. I have a hard time believing in coincidences, when it comes to people like Bill Colby.

His mysterious death has also brought to my mind, his own explanations of how people end up dead, in the course of our discussing the death of Franklin case investigator Gary Caradori - a death Colby himself had investigated. His exact statement on this was: it's done right, you'll never know how it was done, or who did it for sure. That's what professionalism is all about."

Caradori's Airplane 'Broke Up in Flight'

By Robert Dorr
and Gabriella Stern
World-Herald Staff Writers

The small plane that carried Lincoln private detective Gary Caradori and his 8-year-old son to their deaths in Illinois early Wednesday apparently broke up in flight, two investigators said Wednesday.

"It was a scattered wreckage pattern," said Bill Bruce, an investigator with the National Transportation Safety Board. "It certainly demonstrates that it did break up in flight. The exact mechanism of the breakup is unknown."

Sheriff Tim Bivins of Lee County, Ill., who spent 12 hours at the crash site, said he didn't think an explosion occurred while the plane was in the air. He said he thought the plane "came apart in the air" and exploded on impact. Bivins said plane debris was scattered over an area three-quarters of a mile long.

Caradon was the private investigator looking into allegations of child sexual abuse for the Legislature's Franklin Credit Union committee. The committee is investigating matters related to the 1988 failure of Omaha's Franklin Community Federal Credit Union. Caradon worked for the committee.

Colby described both professional assassinations, as well as some bungles. The case of Fidel Castro, he said, was one of the biggest fiascoes that Bill had ever run across. Colby told the story how in one, now known, memorable sequence of screw-ups, the CIA tried to get Fidel's mistress to plant a tube of super toxic toothpaste onto Castro's bath stand. The ploy ultimately resulted in the girlfriend becoming a dead, ex-girlfriend. The blunders and screw-ups and lack of professional- ism, in the efforts to get Castro, drove Bill to insist that the CIA should simply quit trying to assassinate him.

In the aftermath of Bill's death, a line began to emerge that Bill was either deeply depressed, or suffering from some fatal ailment, and, perhaps, took his own life. I think a recounting of my last face-to-face discussion with Bill Colby should dispel this gossip for good.

I had this meeting with Bill shortly before his death. We had a very lengthy discussion about life, and I asked him, among other things, "Bill, if you were going to pick any period of your life that you would say was the most satisfying and enjoyable, what two-, or three-, or five-year period would it be? World War II, Vietnam, your days as head of CIA? When would it be and what made it so special?"

Without hesitation-exactly one week before he died-Bill said the following: "The last five years and for sure the next five years," Bill said. "Are you serious?" I asked. "Absolutely," Bill said. "Here's why. First, I have virtually no pressure; yet I am in a position to use my entire life's experiences and learning, and share them with the world to help make a difference. You know what I am doing immediately after I leave you?" Bill continued. "I am headed for Outer Mongolia to give a briefing and to talk to the heads of business and government there.

At the time of his death, Bill was working with Britain's Lord William Rees-Mogg, and his American sidekick, James Dale Davidson, publishing a series of newsletters, on international events, financial opportunities, and politics. In fact, he was working on an article for one of those newsletters when he died. Rees-Mogg and Davidson are strange birds. Lord William was, for over a decade, the editor-in-chief of the staid Times of London, and its Sunday Times of London. He fits the stereo- type of the classic English "Colonel Blimp," the blunt imperialist, who periodically uncorks with a nasty mouthful of invectives against the "commoner," or the darker-skinned races. After all, he used to write that in the coming age of society, an elite of 5% of the total population would rule over the other 95% as virtual slaves. But Rees Mogg is not just nasty-he represents great power. In England, it has long been said that The Times, the flagship paper of the Establishment, regularly announces Britain's foreign policy before the Foreign Office even knows what that policy will be.

A week after our get-together, in which Bill spoke so enthusiastically about his work and his travels, he was dead-under the most unusual circumstances, his death officially labeled an "accident."

I did not believe it then, and I do not believe it now. But I do believe what Bill said: "If it's done right, you will never know how it was done, or who did it." And so, my dear friend, I wish you a last good-bye.

I will do my best to carry out the final tasks you assigned me, as I always did, so many years ago, as a Combat Infantry Captain under your command, in the rice paddies and hamlets of Vietnam.

[John DeCamp goes in to say he sees the story in fiction one night in Billy Budd, the stuttering sailor on the ship called The Natural Law run by the British framed for treason and thinks the children of Franklin School were treated accordingly.]

Loran Schmit

In 1989 Schmit appointed Gary Caradori to investigate the case of the Franklin child prostitution ring. In July 1990 Caridori died in a plane crash. On 6 March 1991 he wrote to Bill Bruce, an NTSB aviation inspector that "there have been entirely too many violent deaths associated with this investigation for me accept the conclusion that Caradori's aircraft simply came apart in the sky". In October 1991 EIR published an article which termed Caradori's crash "suspicious". In 2014 Wayne Madsen blamed the FBI for the event.

Dear Mr. Bruce:

I visited briefly with Mr. William Colby and he indicated that he thought you might soon be writing a report on the crash which killed Gary Caradori and his son, Andrew.

I have Visited with Mrs. Caradori and she adamant about the fact that none of the seats were ever removed from the aircraft and she informs me that as of now the two rear seats of the six have never been found.

It seems to me that those two seats could not simply have disappeared. Certainly by now they should have show up somewhere unless something unusual would account for their disappearance. I do not know anything about sabotage but I have been told that a phosphorous type bomb would, in fact, vaporize metal and any other material with which it came in contact and that unless someone knew what they were looking for, it would be difficult, if not impossible, to detect.

I am sure there will be those who will scoff at such a suggestion, but have been entirely too many violent deaths associated with this investigation for me to accept that Caradori's aircraft simply came apart in the sky.

If you have found those two seats,I would be most appreciative if you would confirm that for me.

Sincerely;

Roskens 'sleaze factor' at U.S. AID could be bad news for Bush campaign retrieved from Executive Intelligence Review and copied or modified to here by an EIR Investigative Team

Dr. Ronald W. Roskens, head of the U .S. State Department Agency for International Development (AID), is the subject of a scandal in which he is being charged with violating federal laws and ethics codes, according to the Oct. 6 Wash- ington Post. A report prepared by AID Inspector General Herbert Beckington dated April 5 and leaked to the Post, charges Roskens with accepting thousands of dollars in payments from "different organizations in compensation of his and his wife 's travel expenses" while Roskens was on official government travel. He also took money for a private trip from a company 'Trom which Roskens had agreed to divest himself as a condition of his presidential appointment. " The inspector general concluded that the money accepted by Roskens was a clear conflict of interest and violated feder- al law against earning non-government income. But on Sept. 4, after reviewing the charges, the Department of Justice (DOJ) informed Beckington that it had decided not to prosecute-giving no explanation for its decision. The White House is reviewing the case.

Congressional investigators are already looking into the allegations. Should they scratch below the surface, they will find that this is not the first time Roskens has been touched by scandal. Although President Bush promised that he would not tolerate even the appearance of impropriety in his administration, Congress should not be surprised if the White House threatens to start "breaking legs" in Roskens's defense.

Friend of Bush

Can You Imagine George H.W. Bush of 1950's CIA Overthrows recruited Franklin and McMartin children for oversees families?- EPD

That is exactly what childhood testing was. "My this child does puzzles fast. Did you know you finished this puzzle before the other children were half way done? We have a family oversees who loves puzzles and needs a bright young boy like you to help them with those puzzles. Would you like to meet a US President in person to hear about that family? - Edward Paul Donegan

It is not just that Roskens is a personal friend of the President-although he is. As we shall indicate below, an unimpeded investigation into Roskens could expose the link between Bush 's little-publicized birth control mania much of which is carried out through the State Deparment's AID in the Third World-and the sexual depravity rampant in U .S. political and intelligence elites. Any such scandal could shatter the illusions of Bush's conservative base, many of whom still accept the President's claims to being "pro-life, " "anti-drug," and an American patriot. It should also make anyone who thinks of the propaganda about Bush being the "education President," deeply queasy.

Roskens left his home state of Nebraska for the nation 's capital in early 1990 enmired in controversy. He had been fired suddenly as president of the University of Nebraska, in a secret meeting of the state Board of Regents in July 1989.

No public explanation was been given for his removal. Yet within weeks, the White House offered Roskens the high- profile job in Washington. The administration knew about the controversy in Nebraska, but Rbskens passed an FBI background check, and was confirmed to head AID.

he FBI appears to have overlooked a Feb. 19, 1990 investigative report by the late Gary Caradori, an investigator for the "Franklin Committee" of the Nebraska Senate and an ex-state trooper. He wrote, "I was informed that Roskins [sic] was terminated by the state because of sexual activities reported to the Regents and verified by them. Mr. Roskins [sic] was reported to have had young men at his residence for sexual encounters. As part of the separation from the state, he had to move out of the state-owned house because of the liability to the state if some of this sexual behavior was 'illegal. ' " Caradori died in a suspicious airplane crash last year.

Suit seeks truth on firing

The Omaha office of Associated Press regularly identifies Roskens as follows: "the former president of the University of Nebraska who was fired without •public explanation by the NU Board of Regents." A lawsuit was filed against the University of Nebraska Board of Regents to force a full explanation of why Roskens was fired. The suit was brought by Dan Meyer of Lincoln. His attorney is John DeCamp, a former Republican state senator.

The attorney representing the Board of Regents, Terry Wittler, said, "The regents met in closed session to discuss personnel matters and avoid needless injury to Roskens's reputation," according to the Jan. 24. 1991 Lincoln Journal Star. The "open meetings law" of the state of Nebraska says that a public body, such as the Board of Regents, which is popularly elected, may hold a closed session if it is "clearly necessary for the protection of the public interest or for the prevention of needless injury to the reputation of an individual and if such individual has not requested a public meeting. " Roskens demanded no such public meeting.

Board of Regents chairman Nancy Hoch tried to work out a 'friendly" agreement with Roskens but he turned it down. Regent Robert Allen told the press that Roskens thought the board couldn't fire him because of his strong support in the state legislature. Yet, in a 7-1 vote in a closed session on July 31, 1989, Roskens was fired. According to Regent Allen, the two attorneys for the board had told the regents that Roskens had placed a provision in his buyout contract which prohibited any disclosures. Regent Hoch told the media as late as December 1990 that lawyers were still advising her to keep quiet about the firing. "That is not to say the board wouldn't like to comment, but we had been told we should not comment on it," she told the Lincoln Journal Star.

'No fiscal or moral questions'

In an April 24, 1990 article in the Omaha World Herald entitled "Praise Flows as Roskens Is Sworn in as AID Chief," made up mostly of paeans from President Bush, Vice President Dan Quayle, and Secretary of State James Baker, the firing is mentioned in an odd fashion. The World Herald reported, "Roskens was removed as president of the University of Nebraska last year by the Board of Regents in a closed meeting. After the meeting, the board would say only that its decision did not involve fiscal or moral questions. " Had someone made such an accusation? According to sources in Nebraska politics and at the university, rumors circulated alleging that Roskens engaged in indiscretions with male minors while president of the university. Although his supporters claim he was ousted over his struggle for administrative control of the university against an overly intrusive Board of Regents, the rumor has gained currency and has yet to be put to rest.

There is no independent confirmation of the accusations against Roskens. But similar charges against other prominent Nebraskans have persisted as fallout from a Nebraska State Senate investigation into a sex and money scandal that continues to rock the Midwestern state.

The scandal originated with the collapse of the minority oriented Franklin Community Credit Union in Omaha, directed by Lawrence E. King, Jr., a black former Republican Party influential and Reagan-Bush campaign activist. King became the subject of the Nebraska Senate's investigation conducted by the specially created "Franklin Committee" to probe charges of embezzlement.

Satanism and child abuse

In November 1988, King's offices were raided by the FBI and $40 million was discovered missing. Within weeks, the Nebraska Senate, which initially opened an inquiry to find out where the money had gone, instead found itself questioning young adults who said they had been child prostitutes. Social workers and state child-care administrators accused King of running a child prostitution ring.

King is now serving a 15-year federal prison sentence for defrauding the Omaha-based credit union. But the magazines Avvenimenti of Italy and Pronto of Spain, among others, have charged that King's crimes were more serious: that he ran a national child prostitution ring that serviced the political and business elite of both Republican and Democratic parties. Child victims of King's operations charged him with participating in at least one satanic ritual murder of a child several years ago. The Washington Post, New York Times, and National Law Journal covered the full range of accusations when the story broke in November 1988. King's money machinations were also linked to the Iran-Contra affair, and some say King provided the CIA with information garnered from his alleged activities as a "pimp" for the high and mighty.

Pronto, the Barcelona-based, largest circulation weekly in Spain with 4.5 million readers, reported in its Aug. 3 and Aug. 10 issues that the Lawrence E. King child-prostitution scandal "appears to directly implicate politicos of the state of Nebraska and Washington' D.C. who are very close to the White House and George Bu$h himself. "

The weekly stated that Roy Stephens, a private investigator who has worked on the case and heads the Missing Youth Foundation, "says there is reason to believe that the CIA is directly implicated," and that the "FBI refuses to help in the investigation and has sabotaged any efforts" to get to the bottom of the story. Stephens says that "Paul Bonacci directly accused President Bush of being implicated" in the affair when he testified before the Franklin Committee. Bonacci, who had been one of the child prostitutes, is identified by leading child-abuse experts as a well-informed, credible witness.

Roskens knew Lawrence King

The unsavory Lawrence King was no stranger to Roskens. Both were part of the Republican Party elite in the Cornhusker State. According to the Sept. 7, 1988 Metropoli- tan, a weekly newspaper, "King is an adviser to the UNO Chancellor's advisory committee." Roskens was chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Omaha (UNO) until 1977, when he was promoted to head the entire university system, and moved to the capital of Lincoln.

Sources also allege that Roskens played a role in securing investments during the 1980s into King 's credit union. While president of the university, Roskens sat on the board ofdirec- tors of the Enron Corp. , now a Houston-based oil firm which was originally headquartered in Omaha. In 1986, the Enron Foundation, the oil company's corporate philanthropic arrn, bought $200,000 in certificates of deposit from Lawrence King's credit union.

The company identified in the AID inspector general's report as having paid for Roskens's travel, 'from which Dr. Roskens had agreed to divest himself as a condition of his is none other than the Enron presidential appointment," Corp., according to Cable News Network.

Roskens was also a friend and political associate of Harold Andersen, publisher of the Omaha World Herald, the leading state daily, an early booster of Lawrence King's career. Andersen led fundraising drives on behalf of King's credit union. He was also accused of being a sexual abuser of children during the State Senate investigation. In 1987, Roskens was vice chairman of a special task force on which Harold Andersen also served, which had been set up by Gov. Kay Orr to secure the move of U.S. West Airlines headquarters to Nebraska, according to a June 23, 1987 article in the Lincoln Journal Star. Andersen's Wash- ington connection is his friend and political associate Robert Keith Gray, a long-standing Republican Party public relations consultant-who managed some of the public diplomacy during the Iran-Contra scandal.

The Bush insiders

Given the cloud under which Roskens left Nebraska, it might seem odd that he was quickly boosted into a top foreign-policy post in Washington. The key seems to have been a circle of Bush "insiders." "Prominent Republican Dick Herman, more than anyone else is credited by Ronald Roskens with helping him win a top federal job after he was fired as president of the University of Nebraska," reported the Sunday World Herald on May 6, 1990. The article reported that "Herman said he and his wife, Peg, have known Bush and his wife Barbara, more than 20 years since the time when Bush was chairman of the Republican Party. " It was Herman who introduced Roskens to Bush.

"I ran his [Bush's] ad hoc committee when he ran for vice president under President Ford," Herman told the World Herald. Herman, a Nebraska native who is an influential fundraiser for the Republican National Committee, owns a beer distributing company in Los Angeles. "I saw the President a couple of times, and we talked about Roskens," Herman said.

When Bush was elected President in 1988, Roskens was one of only seven university presidents who were called in by Bush to work on his "education strategy. " Ties to the intelligence community Evidence suggests that Roskens has also maintained a relationship with the U.S. intelligence community. In the early 1970s, he was a consultant to the Office of Emergency Preparedness, the precursor to Federal Emergency Manage- ment Agency (FEMA). He played a central role in quelling public outrage in the aftermath of the killing of anti-war students by the Ohio National Guard at Kent State University, where he was then executive vice president.

Roskens has a reputation as an international affairs spcialist because of his activism in creating ground-breaking academic exchange programs. He set up the largest academic exchange program with Afghanistan in the U. S. in the 1980s. The University of Nebraska and Kabul University had a "sis- ter" relationship. All U. S. -based Afghan operations were, of course, run by intelligence outfits at the time. During the same period, he set up an extensive overseas college program for many U .S. Air Force bases in Europe. In 1972, Roskens was one of the first to establish academic exchange programs with the Soviet Union-in those days carefully coordinated by the State Department and the CIA.

Roskens was on President Bush's short list to be U.S. ambassador to communist China. He has visited China nine times since the mid- 1970s.

Roskens and population control

AID is often accused of being a front for CIA operations in the Third World, and Roskens's background has not helped in dispelling the charge. The full horror of what the CIA's notion of "national security" means concretely came out several months ago, when Brazil's health minister ac- cused AID and several U.S.-based private organizations, such as Planned Parenthood, of "genocide." The minister stated that millions of Brazilian women had been involuntarily sterilized through AID "birth control" programs. Roskens is himself an advocate of population control, according to Joe Seacrest, the chief editor for the Lincoln Journal Star, who offered Roskens his home in Omaha as a temporary residence, after Roskens was kicked out of his university home prior to his move to Washington. Moreover, Roskens has reaped the largesse of the largest private funder of population control advocacy groups in the U.S., Omaha resident Warren Buffett, chairman of Salomon Brothers and the second richest American (see EIR, Oct. 4, 1991). The Buffett Foundation gave $51 ,OOO to the University of Ne- braska in 1988, while Roskens was president.

In January 1990, Roskens pushed the "family planning" line during a whirlwind tour of seven African nations with Secretary of Health and Human Services Louis Sullivan. Roskens reported that by the year 2000, there would be more than 10 million children on the African continent infected with the AIDS virus.

Pressed by the nrdia to articulate soltions, Roskens was evasive, but did say, according to a Lin- coln Journal Star article on Feb. 3, 1991, that one of the major problems he saw affecting the continent was population growth. He said that most of the families he saw in Africa had 7-8 children, and at that rate, the population will double within 20 years, he warned. He commented that AID spends more than $200 million a year on "family planning. " Some students of the Freemasonry believe that homosexual deviance and the correlated obsession with irth control go back to the Gnostic belief structures of the Freemasons and their antecedents in the medieval European "Buggers." It is therefore interesting that Roskens is playing a central role in masonic outreach to Russia and eastern Europe.

Roskens lists in his Who's Who entry, "King Ak Sar Ben LXXXVI, 198()." Ak Sar Ben (Nebraska spelled backwards) is the elite masonic organization of Nebraska, which crowns a "king" at an annual ball.

FBI Killed Franklin Scandal Investigator And His Son retrieved from https://rense.com/general96/fbikilled.html and copied or modified to here

By Wayne Madsen SPECIAL REPORT 6-23-14

WMR can exclusively report that it was the Federal Bureau of Investigation that placed a bomb on the private airplane that killed state of Nebraska chief investigator Gary Caradori and his 6-year old son "AJ" on July 11, 1990. Caradori had been hired by the Nebraska unicameral legislature to investigate allegations that a number of Nebraska youth had been sexually abused and transported over state lines in a scandal centered around the Franklin Credit Union, headed by rising GOP African-American star Lawrence King.

A very knowledgeable source involved with what became known as the "Franklin Scandal" told WMR that Caradori flew to Chicago ostensibly to attend the All Star game on July 10 at Wrigley Field. In reality, the trip to the game was a cover for Caradori to meet with a source who handed him photographs that proved that Nebraskan children, some from the famed Boy's Town orphanage, were being used for the sexual gratification of important political leaders in Washington, including Vice President and President George H W Bush.

Caradori phoned his wife and another investigator shortly before the All-Star game and told them the same thing: "I got what I came after. I got 'em by the balls. I've got pictures. I will take them to the game and bring them back to Nebraska."

When Caradori began to follow the money behind the Franklin scandal, he discovered two things: the Franklin Credit Union was being used by the White House and CIA to launder money for the Iran-contra affair and King and his associates were given a free ride to sexually traffic in and molest children, including many procured from Boy's Town.

One of those implicated in the Franklin scandal was Housing and Urban Development Secretary Sam Pierce. At the 1984 Republican National Convention in Dallas, King held a $1 million reception for Pierce. However, King's salary at the time was $14,000 a year and the actual cost of the reception was $300,000. The difference, $700,000, went into a slush fund that was laundered by the Franklin Credit Union for various "activities" sponsored by the CIA and White House.

On July 11, Caradori took off in his private plane from Chicago en route to Nebraska. Witnesses on the ground said they saw a flash in the sky followed by an explosion. Initial news reports stated that Caradori's aircraft exploded in flight and then crashed. However, subsequent news reports were altered and claimed the aircraft exploded upon impact with the ground. Caradori and his son were killed in the crash. The local Sheriff's office reported that scattered in the wreckage were child pornographic photographs. The FBI arrived and began systematically removing the photographs, debris, and Caradori's briefcase. Meanwhile, FBI agents in Lincoln, Nebraska entered Caradori's office and seized his files. Another FBI agent showed up at the office of a Nebraska state official investigating the Franklin case and demanded he turn over his files. The state official told the FBI agent to "get the hell out."

The Bush White House immediately began covering up the Franklin scandal and put pressure on the remaining Nebraska state investigators. The FBI used the Kansas City mob to intimidate high-level witnesses and investigators of the Franklin scandal. One of the lead investigators also told WMR, "the FBI killed Caradori . . . they put the bomb on his airplane."

An attempt to hire former CIA director William Colby to lead a state of Nebraska investigation of the Franklin scandal failed in a legislative committee 4 to 3 vote. Instead, the committee appointed attorney Kirk Naylor as its chief investigator. A major figure involved in investigating Franklin told WMR that Naylor was the most incompetent person the committee could have found to lead the investigation. Colby was a Vietnam War colleague of Nebraska state Senator John De Camp, one of major investigators of the Franklin scandal. Colby reportedly was ready to expose the CIA's own involvement in the use of child prostitutes for the purposes of political and diplomatic blackmail. Colby died in a suspicious canoeing accident on the Chesapeake Bay on April 27, 1996.

Monsignor Robert Hupp, the Vicar-General of the Archdiocese of Omaha, a former Navy chaplain, and, in 1976, the first-ever clergy member of the U.S. delegation to the United Nations, had reported in the early 1970s to his bishop that there was sexual abuse at Boy's Town that even involved a priest murdering a boy. Hupp was later named the head of Boy's Town, ostensibly to keep him quiet. Hupp was in charge of Boy's Town until the late 1980s, when the Franklin scandal first hit the front pages. Eventually, even after stepping down as the head of the orphanage, Hupp was forced to leave Boy's Town altogether. WMR has learned that in 2003 a longtime supporter of Boy's Town allowed Hupp to move into his cabin in Mausten, Wisconsin after being forced to leave the facilities at Boy's Town. A reporter for the Omaha World-Herald, a newspaper owned by Nebraska billionaire Warren Buffett and which always had a skeptical view of the Franklin scandal, volunteered to drive Hupp to Wisconsin. Upon arriving at the cabin, the reporter prepared dinner for Hupp. The retired monsignor who broke the Catholic Church's silence on its role in the Franklin scandal, died in his sleep that same night.

The iconic Washington Times front page that capped off the Franklin scandal's sporadic and spotty news coverage.

Anyone who believes the Franklin Scandal and Cover-up is over and done with would be dead wrong. On January 20, 2012, Carol Stitt, the 29-year director of the Nebraska Foster Care Review Board, an individual who aggressively protected foster care children in Nebraska from sexual perverts and other undesirable foster parents, was dismissed by her own board of directors. The 11-member board had been stacked by loyalists of Republican Governor Dave Heineman whose goal it was to oust Stitt. As with the constant intimidation of witnesses involved in Franklin, Stitt also found herself investigated by the federal government's Office of Special Counsel for allegedly violating the Hatch Act by attending a 2006 political campaign rally for Republican and football coach legend Tom Osborne. Although Stitt, a state employee, would not normally be subject to the rarely-enforced Hatch Act that bans political activity by federal employees, Stitt's Foster Care Review Board received funds from the federal Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

The HHS's initial complaint against Stitt, which arose from her attendance at the 2006 Osborne rally, began when current GOP U.S. Senate candidate Ben Sasse was serving as assistant secretary for planning and evaluation at HHS. From 1996 to 1998, Sasse was one of four tutors/proctors for the U.S. House of Representatives page program. During this time frame, a number of House pages complained of sexual harassment from GOP House members. Representatives Jim Kolbe (R-AZ) and Mark Foley (R-FL) were later named as principal harassers of underage male pages. WMR has also learned from a member of the Sasse family that physical and psychological abuse have been rampant in the Sasse family. Senate candidate Sasse, who helped the John Ashcroft Justice Department draw up torture policy along with the CIA, is a home-schooler whose religious beliefs are based on neo-Calvinist fundamentalist Christian Dominionism.

Sasse faces two opponents after coming from the political wilderness to defeat better known and financed GOP candidates in the primary. David Domina, a trial lawyer, is Sasse's lackluster Democratic opponent, while Dan Buhrdorf is mounting a spirited independent challenge under the Tax Wall Street Party banner.

John DeCamp will late be in a suspicious car accident leaving brain damage and died shortly after but before the car accident had paid the funeral expenses of Ted Gunderson whose work had left him in poverty.

In this Ted Gunderson biography Acknowledgments I Edward Paul Donegan also acknowledge myself Edward Paul Donegan. Both well influenced and educated and perhaps in need of ideas or or having bee given them or some combination of that I have arrived on several things I carry with me in my life and find useful surprisingly often. One is the difference between radial and axial such as engines from propeller planes and another is process and substance. Ted Gunderson, John DeCamp, William Colby and other portrayed a large and dangerous NWO that may have betrayed the US people to create by assassination a global control of the US to carry out global programs the people of the USA did not vote on and were not told of.

One element in this Super Conspiracy Theory is the Gang Stalk, covert operators who have some goal that they achieve for anonymous people and for anonymous reasons and most likely through deceits in all directions of their operations. The Gang Stalkers assert as substance they have a right to be one place or another if they don't actually touch a person. That is not quite true but even if it was the process of their being their rather than the substance of it is the problem. They the stalkers noticing you being making eye contact or noticing you by avoiding it or by expressive acts are in process doing something illegal. In my case it is tied to money laundering and payouts to a crime network both smearing me and receiving claims under the smear. I have used Oceans 11 movies as a model for this, teams of people from impersonators, forgers, etc., are setup in places to conduct the frauds that involve surrounding the mark (or even those the mark knows) and making appearances back the frauds. In addition stalker in their covert operations engage in food poisonings and other activities once in place near the mark. I believe Gunderson on this and other matters.

It was the theory of Ted Gundesron something that matched Manchurian Candidate 1962. Dr. Lo is talking about creating deep sleepers who could be awoken from per-programmed sleep some day in psychological warfare overthrows. These had to be programmed and selected at very young ages. Dr. Lo asks how can you tell about a person so young? This is particularly true with intermittent conditions like the volatility that arises in Borderline Personality Disorder. Certain forms of stressors create the volatility. Testing for that was part of child abuse and eugenics and genetic studies in the 1960's and on. Jen Moore adds that some of these studies go back to the 1920's and covert identities in the Unites States and elite leaders who today are covering-up they ar part of MK-Ultra elite families in high ranking positions. This testing occur in the school I went to Mc Martin pre-school. Locating and killing anyone who leaks the programs existence (Family Jewels Program) is what Geral Sosbee, I Jen More, William Colby, and others assert.
